

Yom Teruah: the day of the shout! AND: Rosh Hashanah Brisket Recipe!

Yom Teruah is the day of the shout! The day to sound the shofars and remember that with a shout, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah will return for His people! It is the more “Biblical” term for what is more widely known as “Rosh Hashanah,” which means “Head of the year.” We celebrate a new year and we await Messiah’s return.

www.adonaishalom.com

Psalms 65:11, NKJV

Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed—

in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye,
at the last shofar.
For the shofar will sound,
and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we will be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:51-52, TLV

I love to be able to share these Biblical feast days with my family, especially our children.

They love to sound the shofar and they eagerly pour honey on the apples they have freshly picked from our apple tree. Tonight, we will begin our celebration with a traditional brisket dinner.

It is common to serve a brisket on Rosh Hashanah
Are you looking for an easy, delicious brisket recipe? Look no further! I have combined several recipes that have circulated recently and I think this is a real winner:

AN AUTUMN RECIPE

ROSH HASHANAH BRISKET

Cover baking pan with parchment paper.

Mix together: date paste, salt, pepper, garlic, thyme or lemon thyme, and lemon zest or lemongrass and rub this all over a 4-5lb brisket.

Place brisket on bed of sliced white onions, on parchment.
Cover with parchment paper to create a packet.

Bake at 350°F 2 hrs.
Open parcel and cook 1 more hour
until meat thermometer reading reaches 195°F.

Shana Tova!

www.adonaishalom.com

How will you celebrate this special day? Post your Rosh Hashanah pictures on our Facebook page!

Above all, may your year be sweet and the LORD be honored!
Maranatha!

Shalom, mishpocha.

Yom Teruah

A BIBLICAL FEAST DAY

